“ABOUT SHIJIAZHUANG

Shijiazhuang, the capital city of the Hebei province, is the political, economic, technological, financial & cultural heart of the Hebei province.

Shijiazhuang has a GDP of 593.5 billion RMB (2020) and is historically known as a transportation hub of China.

It is well-known for information technology, pharmacy, advanced equipment manufacturing, commerce & logistics industries.

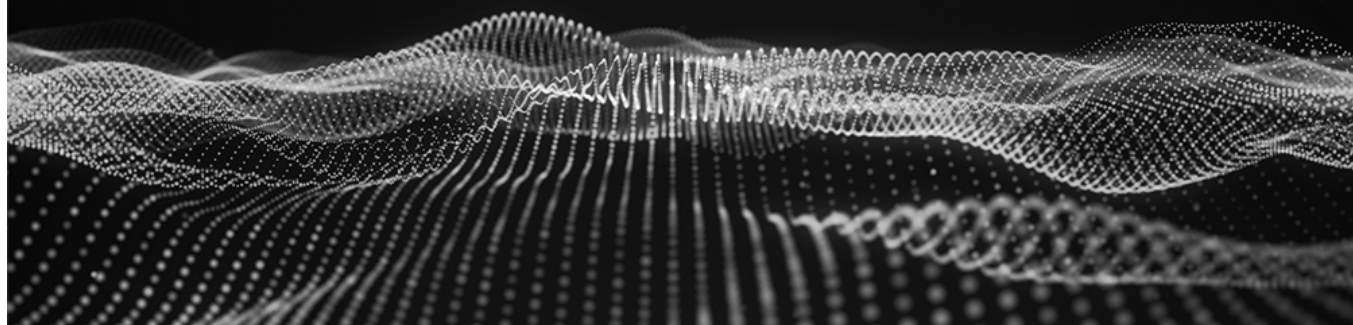

In addition, Shijiazhuang is the only official lifetime host of the China International Digital Economy Expo (CIDEE).

Shijiazhuang is currently developing its CBD zone, which will become a national innovation & development zone, a key connecting point for the Belt and Road policy-related industries, and a Beijing-Tianjin industry transfer center. Shijiazhuang is approximately a 75-minute train ride from Beijing.
